

WHY COME, THEY GO

You Know, And Some You Don't Know.

A Day In Live Oak

Our bridge received some news yesterday last night at the new bridge J. W. Evans made a business visit to the Park spent two days there.

W. A. Price

of the Coast Line

is back in town.

W. V. Edwards

and his wife per yard

of himself of Marquette was in town Saturday night.

A friend of mine

spent part of yesterday in the city.

W. H. Durrance, a prominent citizen of Marquette, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lewis of the Lewis

Spencer Company were in town this afternoon.

W. H. Price went to the Park this morning in the interest of the J. W.

Evans.

C. T. Knobell went to his duties

Marquette with the Santa Fe line today.

Miss M. V. Edwards

of the City Restaurant

the only white restaurant in the city.

W. L. Farnell of Kinston, was in the Park yesterday shaking hands with his friends.

J. C. Mangum, who was in town

last night

had a

WANTED—A collection of old wood or iron bars. Address P. O. Box 1000.

W. L. Farnell, the

W. L. Farnell, the